This HIGHLY interactive session will combine success stories, tales of woe, essential skill sets necessary for Corporate Relations officers to navigate curveballs, and maybe even a little role play, to demonstrate proven techniques to close the deal.

2:15 p.m. – 3:15 p.m. Stewarding Your Corporate Partners

Stewardship is the careful and responsible management of something that has been entrusted to you. In the context of corporate relations, it is imperative that in addition to prospecting for new partners, we also steward what we already have. This session will review examples and best practices for stewardship at two universities, which is a core activity in a successful corporate relations program. These are overviews of all of the different touchpoints between the university and the company, including recruiting, procurement, alumni employees, leadership engagement, and giving.
